

Dear Mayor Sullivan and Council,

As someone who lives/works in Vancouver, I value the services provided by city outside, inside and library workers.

Our workers deserve much better than the treatment they've recently received. I am particularly upset by:

Please direct your staff to bargain in good faith with our city and library workers, and address the issues that they are bringing to the table. At the very least, our workers deserve:

Sincerely,

Name:

Address: