FEBRUARY 2018 VOLUME 2 ISSUE 1

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

In Memoriam

Dave Barrett: A bold premier for a bold era

http://bcfed.ca/news/releases/dave-barrett-bold-premier-bold-era

Dave Barrett Broke Down Walls of Government

http://ex-press.com/2018/02/02/dave-barrett-broke-walls-government/

Family Day Events

http://www.familyfuncanada.com/vancouver/family-day/

https://miss604.com/2018/01/bc-family-day-in-metro-vancouver.html

Sobeys begins illegal lockout of hundreds of workers: union

Sobeys has begun an illegal lockout of more than 600 Safeway workers, according to a complaint filed by UFCW 1518 at the BC Labour Relations Board today. Read More:

http://www.ufcw1518.com/topnews/786-2/

Dear Canadian unions: Don't let a union split tear the labour movement apart

The leadership of Unifor, the largest private sector Canadian union, declared earlier this month that it is leaving the Canadian Labour Congress (CLC) over allegations that US-based international unions are meddling in the internal affairs of their Canadian affiliates. The internet is abuzz with talk of CLC retribution against Unifor. Read More:

http://rankandfile.ca/2018/01/31/dear-canadian-unions-dont-let-a-union-split-tear-the-labour-movement-apart/

http://www.windsorsquare.ca/archives/2018/labour-discord-with-unifor-raiding/110766

https://opseu.org/news/opseu-president-offers-help-resolve-differences-between-canadian-labour-congress-and-unifor

Amazon Patents Wristband That Can Track Warehouse Workers

Amazon was awarded a pair of patents for a wristband-based monitoring system that can track warehouse workers' hand movements. Read More:

https://www.pcmag.com/news/358963/amazon-patents-wristband-that-can-track-warehouse-workers

Quick thinking library staff save 82-year-old from losing thousands to fraudsters

Libraries are more than just buildings and books. Read More:

https://www.belfastlive.co.uk/news/scam-alert-quick-thinking-library-14237523.amp?__twitter_impression=true