

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

'Climate strike' gains momentum in Vancouver as federal election nears

The student-led movement is inviting people of all ages to leave school and work on Sept. 27 to rally outside Vancouver City Hall

<https://tinyurl.com/y3eyngft>

Vancouver Island Coal Strike-Labour History

Vancouver Island Coal Strike began on 16 Sept 1912 when miners at Cumberland declared a "holiday" to protest the firing of Oscar Mottishaw

<https://tinyurl.com/y3n6efnh>

Book Review: Birth Strike

The Hidden Fight Over Women's Work

<https://tinyurl.com/y2kfukex>
<https://tinyurl.com/y58nr0om>

CUPE workers reach tentative agreement

K-12 support workers in Okanagan-Similkameen (L523) and Mission (L593) reached a tentative agreement

<https://tinyurl.com/y2c2t94b>

<https://tinyurl.com/y5qbbdle>

At Foodora, A New Twist In Battle Over Contract Labor

An intensifying battle between the food delivery company Foodora and its Toronto drivers could result in Canada's first unionized app-based workforce

<https://tinyurl.com/y67e93ty>

California Bill Makes App-Based Companies Treat Workers as Employees

California legislators approved a landmark bill that requires companies like Uber and Lyft to treat contract workers as employees.

<https://tinyurl.com/y4fwe75o>

What California should do next to help Uber drivers

Recognizing them as employees was a fine first step. Letting them unionize is crucial

<https://tinyurl.com/y4gmbev3>

In 'Disgusting' Move, Jeff Bezos Abruptly Cuts Health Benefits for Nearly 2,000 Part-Time Whole Foods Workers

Amazon founder Jeff Bezos on Thursday cut benefits for part-time workers at his grocery chain Whole Foods, drawing criticism from the left for a move that could leave thousands of people without health insurance

<https://tinyurl.com/y356f2t9>