

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

391 At Convention

You can follow along with 391 at the convention on twitter (@cupe391 & @cupe391Pres), on Instagram (@Cupe391) or follow our daily blog on the website

<https://twitter.com/CUPE391>
<https://twitter.com/cupe391pres>
<https://www.instagram.com/cupe391/>

CUPE VOTES

Read up on the key issues that affect you and your community in this election.

Pharmacare
<https://tinyurl.com/vyudctb5>
 Affordable Housing
<https://tinyurl.com/y5j9rqzt>
 Privatization
<https://tinyurl.com/y3ldvybl>
 Healthcare
<https://tinyurl.com/y3fdt49s>
 Proportional Representation
<https://tinyurl.com/y3m25afc>
 Pensions
<https://tinyurl.com/yyhatvyc>

Labour Minister Bains says ride-hailing companies are not exempt from labour laws

Minister Harry Bains on Wednesday told The VOICE that ride-hailing companies are not exempt from the province's labour laws

<https://tinyurl.com/y3ld9h7v>

Janitors become first group to test BC's new successorship provisions setting major legal precedent for workers in highly precarious sectors of the economy

Over 20 janitors at risk of losing their jobs Monday will now be retained by the successor contractor, Bee-Clean Building Maintenance, after winning a crucial decision at the BC Labour Relations Board on Saturday

<https://tinyurl.com/yxqalopr>
<https://tinyurl.com/y5uclox9>

Province-wide strike averted as CUPE ON education workers reach tentative agreement

After an intensive weekend of negotiations, a tentative deal has been reached for a new central agreement, following talks between CUPE, the provincial government and the Council of Trustees' Associations

<https://tinyurl.com/y2y7l7xv>

Why the Labor Strike Is Back

Though it had fallen out of favor, the strike—the most effective weapon workers have at their disposal—is back with a fervor not seen in decades

<https://tinyurl.com/y4hoa8w6>

Uber Eats [Japan] deliverers form labor union

Seventeen deliverers for the food order service Uber Eats in Japan have formed a labor union to seek better working conditions.

<https://tinyurl.com/y6ht2xwf>