Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

Bargaining Proposal Ratification Meeting
Sunday November 24
Alice MacKay Room
6 pm
https://tinyurl.com/y2zomywz

STRIKE! The Game of Worker Rebellion
A strategic, cooperative, and beautifully-illustrated board game for 2 - 4 players about building a city-wide rebellion to stop a mega-corporation's takeover https://tinyurl.com/yylhfamv https://tinyurl.com/y2krbk5w

The Vancouver Transit Strike, Explained
There are a lot of questions around what could be one of Metro Vancouver largest labour disputes in a long time https://tinyurl.com/y5xp58qg

Talks break down between E-Comm, 9-1-1 Operators Mediated talks broke down with the employer unwilling to address key union concerns around low wages, cost of living, overtime, missed breaks, poor working conditions, burnout, and high attrition https://tinyurl.com/y358tz5h

N.B. Court of Appeal upholds nursing home workers' right to strike After a months-long complicated legal process, New Brunswick's Court of Appeal has upheld a lower court's decision allowing the province's unionized nursing home workers the right to strike https://tinyurl.com/y52ynutr https://tinyurl.com/y23uzyvw

Uber and Lyft have launched a campaign to avoid government regulation in California Gig companies just launched a $90 million campaign to escape California's crackdown on the gig economy https://tinyurl.com/y6x2pvlw

Uber and Lyft on pace to hit records with lobbying spending Ride-hailing companies lobby on the NEW GIG Act, Sami's Law and other bills https://tinyurl.com/y57zryfc

After 500 days of striking, Oracle Korea Workers Union win a recognition agreement After a one-and-a-half-year strike for better wages and fairer treatment, the Oracle Korea Workers Union won a first basic recognition agreement with software and computing giant Oracle https://tinyurl.com/y3tlnwds