

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

General Meeting Central Branch

Thursday November 28
6pm
Level 7 Board Room

CUPE 2950 launches local history project at UBC

CUPE 2950's predecessor, the Association of University and College Employees (AUCE 1) was the first to achieve fully funded maternity leave through ground-breaking language achieved in their first contract in September 1974

<https://tinyurl.com/wpg7vqd>

VDLC REACHES 130th ANNIVERSARY

One hundred and thirty years ago today, on November 21, 1889, the Vancouver and District Labour Council was founded

<https://tinyurl.com/yxxw8apa>

CUPE 7000, SkyTrain return to the bargaining table

CUPE 7000 and the BC Rapid Transit Company (SkyTrain) have agreed to return to the bargaining table for more negotiations in advance of scheduled mediation

<https://tinyurl.com/sboe5oc>

Many immigrant workers exploited by warehouse employers, labour report reveals

Montreal's warehouses routinely exploit a large segment of mostly immigrant workers, some of whom are injured on the job and then abandoned by their employer, a new report has found

<https://tinyurl.com/rseqfog>

Google Hires Firm Known for Anti-Union Efforts

After nearly two years of unrest, the company appears to be cracking down on employee activism

<https://tinyurl.com/vvxtysu>

Worker-Owned Apps Are Trying to Fix the Gig Economy's Exploitation

A network of cooperative alternatives are replacing rampant exploitation with decent work

<https://tinyurl.com/sje9ghf>

World Toilet Day: UK transport workers denied toilet dignity

Research by Unite, the UK and Ireland's largest union, has found that workers in the transport sector are being routinely denied access to toilets, which is creating health issues and in some cases forcing workers to leave their jobs

<https://tinyurl.com/w4m5n2u>