

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

NATIONAL DAY OF REMEMBRANCE AND ACTION ON VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

On December 6, 1989, 13 female students and a female administrator at L'Ecole Polytechnic in Montreal were murdered because they were women. Thirty years on, this day is about remembering the victims of December 6, 1989 and is also a time of action

<https://tinyurl.com/qngwigz>

Film Review: Nothing But a Man

Nothing But a Man explores the courage it takes a Black worker to challenge the daily degradations of racism

<https://tinyurl.com/qvf7t46>

CUPE solidarity inspires in the North

Picket lines came down on Friday afternoon at the University of Northern BC as the Faculty Association strike was heading into its fourth week

<https://tinyurl.com/r79ydw7>

Unions told thousands more job cuts coming to Alberta public service

Government letters to Alberta's public-service unions in advance of collective bargaining warn thousands of public-sector workers could be laid off as the UCP government tries to cut costs

<https://tinyurl.com/vj5f538>

<https://tinyurl.com/sehdwdy>

Google Fires Four Workers – Oh, And They Just Happened To Be Involved In Labor Organizing

Google on Monday fired four employees who had been active in labor organizing at the company, according to a memo that was seen by The New York Times

<https://tinyurl.com/r8lgnad>

<https://tinyurl.com/vfxru96>

12 EU states reject move to expose companies' tax avoidance

Twelve EU countries have blocked a proposed new rule that would have forced multinational companies to reveal how much profit they make and how little tax they pay in each of the 28 member states

<https://tinyurl.com/rtrtklqx>

Black Friday Protests Across Europe Demand Amazon 'Start Treating Workers Like Humans—Not Robots'

"Workers are breaking bones, being knocked unconscious, and being taken away in ambulances."

<https://tinyurl.com/uae9iffy>