

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

Moncton Public library begins offering free menstrual products to combat period poverty

The Moncton Public Library is stocking its public washrooms with free menstrual products.
<https://tinyurl.com/rnphh63>

PETITION IN SOLIDARITY WITH CHILE

Members of the Chilean community in Vancouver have formed Van4Chile to express solidarity with the people's movement and demand respect for human rights in Chile
<https://tinyurl.com/snzwtlv>

Informed Societies

Why information literacy matters for citizenship, participation and democracy
<https://tinyurl.com/uw2fqmn>

B.C. labour board agrees to hear local union's challenge of Uber and Lyft

UFCW 1518 says drivers should be protected by labour laws around safety and minimum wage
<https://tinyurl.com/vz7vaj2>

Union calls for boycott of Ladner Co-op

The union representing Co-op refinery workers has called for a national boycott of all Co-op businesses including the Ladner gas station.
<https://tinyurl.com/urnvr93>

Respecting the Right to Strike at Harvard

The right to strike is a core federal legal right that is vital to our democracy. No employer – and certainly not Harvard University – should condition employment on its relinquishment.
<https://tinyurl.com/vky2k57>

Google Is Going To War Against Its Own Workers

Google has a string of employee terminations apparently based on their attempts to organise—an escalation that portends a fierce ongoing conflict between workers and management within one of the world's most influential corporations.
<https://tinyurl.com/tnadqgy>

It's not a transformation, it's a massacre

We need to focus our resources on managing the change and making sure it unfolds according to our rules: based on a human-centred approach and in a spirit of solidarity, and therefore collectively
<https://tinyurl.com/tgpveob>