

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

CUPE 15 welcomes new members at Langara

Langara English for Academic Purposes (LEAP) instructors at Langara College voted overwhelmingly to join CUPE 15 in a Labour Board vote conducted last week

<https://tinyurl.com/ure3kvh>

Third library planned for Kamloops

The search is on for a site in the southwest sector, with Aberdeen Mall and school district land bandied about as possible locales

<https://tinyurl.com/v4zluzk>

‘A Totally Rigged System’: Injured Workers in British Columbia Want Change Now

Advocates concerned at government delays in dealing with WorkSafeBC reform.

<https://tinyurl.com/skzkdpz>

Labour leaders threaten general strike as they protest outside Ontario PC convention

Ontario is careening toward a general strike unless Premier Doug Ford changes his ways, a key labour leader warned outside a convention hall where the Progressive Conservatives debated their next steps in running the province

<https://tinyurl.com/s2tnnar>

Kickstarter workers vote to form first union in tech industry

The historic vote comes amid growing discontent among employees at technology companies such as Google, Amazon and Microsoft, who have started to organize.

<https://tinyurl.com/wf6rhhs>

<https://tinyurl.com/w7l72oh>

Wage theft: Employer calls to ‘reform’ award system are a bare-faced con job

One in seven workers are not getting their wages, penalty rates, superannuation, overtime, and entitlements such as sick or annual leave paid correctly

<https://tinyurl.com/ukykw7>