

CUPE 391 Bargaining Update

Dear members,

Your Bargaining Committee continues discussions working towards a new Collective Agreement. We met with the employer today and can share a quick update.

We are pleased to finally be trading proposals and counter proposals with the employer, and with your support we'll continue to make progress towards reaching an agreement.

We will meet with the employer again on April 23rd.

Thank you for your ongoing commitment to each other and the local; please stay tuned for more updates from your Bargaining Committee.
