

CUPE 391 Bargaining Update

Dear members,

We continued discussions today which moved us closer to a new Collective Agreement. Here's a quick update.

We had some frank and difficult discussions which we hope have removed some obstacles. Thank you for the continued well-wishes that the Bargaining Committee is receiving, we're glad to feel the support of membership as we navigate the challenges of bargaining.

We will meet with the employer again on May 31st. A reminder to attend the member update on May 12th at 7:00 PM. Watch for the link!

Thank you for your ongoing commitment to each other and the local; please stay tuned for more updates from your Bargaining Committee.
