

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

CUPE 15 applies for mediation in Vancouver Art Gallery dispute

<https://www.cupe.bc.ca/cupe-15-applies-for-mediation-in-vancouver-art-gallery-dispute>

Mediator brought in to labour dispute at Vancouver Art Gallery

<https://vancouversun.com/news/local-news/union-seeks-mediator-in-vancouver-art-gallery-labour-dispute>

The Organic Role of Libraries as Centers of Inclusiveness and Support

<https://nonprofitquarterly.org/2019/01/24/the-organic-role-of-libraries-as-centers-of-inclusiveness-and-support/>

British Library's collection of obscene writing goes online

<https://www.theguardian.com/books/2019/feb/04/british-librarys-collection-of-obscene-writing-goes-online>

ON STRIKE: WSCU workers fight to preserve retirement security

Workers at Westminster Savings Credit Union's Shaughnessy Station branch walked off the job on Tuesday, January 22 and set up a picket line.

<https://moveuptogether.ca/the-latest/on-strike-wscu-workers-fight-to-preserve-retirement-security/>

<https://moveuptogether.ca/the-latest/on-strike-cdwcr-visits-moveup-members-on-wscu-picket-line/>

International solidarity strengthens CUPW's call for a fair contract

In the spirit of international solidarity, more than 30 postal unions from all over the world sent solidarity letters to the CUPW and letters of concern to the Trudeau government.

<https://www.uniglobalunion.org/news/international-solidarity-strengthens-cupws-call-a-fair-contract>

The Legal Challenge to NYC's Minimum Payments Law: Do Lyft and Juno Have a Point?

The City ought to perfect this path-breaking policy by ensuring that it does not advantage dominant firms—currently, Uber—and handicap non-dominant firms, a result that will not benefit drivers in New York City or elsewhere in the long run.

<https://onlabor.org/the-legal-challenge-to-nycs-minimum-payments-law-do-lyft-and-juno-have-a-point/>

Zimbabwe teachers continue to strike in face of threats of violence

Facing increasing risks of job losses, and even violence, Zimbabwe teachers across the country continued their strike for better pay and transport costs

<http://en.rfi.fr/africa/20190206-zimbabwe-teachers-facing-intimidation-threats-violence-have-right-strike-unions>

Panicky govt meets striking teachers

<https://bulawayo24.com/index-id-news-sc-national-byo-155743.html>