

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

NOMINATIONS NOW OPEN

Just a reminder that nominations are now open for:

- 1st Vice President -- remainder of a 2 year term

<http://cupe391.ca/files/2019/02/VP-By-election3246.pdf>

IMAGINE THE POSSIBILITIES!

BC Library Association and CUPE BC partner to support Summer Reading Club

https://www.cupe.bc.ca/bcla_and_cupe_bc_partner_to_support_bc_summer_reading_club

Powell River library workers vote to strike, plan to file for mediation

CUPE 798 members working at the Powell River Public Library passed a strike vote with a near unanimous vote at a meeting held Thursday

https://www.cupe.bc.ca/powell_river_library_workers_vote_to_strike_plan_to_file_for_mediation

Despite restaurant lobby's tale of woe, Albertans have been dining out in record numbers

Albertans had spent record amounts in restaurants and bars the previous summer as evidence of growing consumer confidence in this province

<http://rabble.ca/blogs/bloggers/alberta-diary/2019/02/despite-restaurant-lobbys-tale-woe-albertans-have-been-dining>

Restaurant lobby launches campaign to elect UCP, roll back $15 minimum wage

<http://rabble.ca/blogs/bloggers/alberta-diary/2019/02/restaurant-lobby-launches-campaign-elect-ucp-roll-back-15>

A Green New Deal for American Labor?

Solar energy installation provides good, union jobs for electrical workers

<https://www.labornotes.org/2019/02/green-new-deal-american-labor>

With López Obrador in, workers have the confidence to walk out

The election of Andrés Manuel López Obrador (AMLO) as president of Mexico has raised the hopes and expectations of millions of Mexican workers.

<http://rankandfile.ca/with-lopez-obrador-in-workers-have-the-confidence-to-walk-out/>