

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

<https://tinyurl.com/y6covq86>

May 1, 2019 at 5:30 PM - 8:30 PM

West Georgia & Richards
<https://tinyurl.com/y3befwbr>

What's ahead for B.C.'s labour laws? Baseline employment standards

Labour Minister Harry Bains is expected to soon close a loophole that allows employers to get around following parts of the Employment Standards Act

<https://tinyurl.com/y2ewsqud>

Justice for Janitors movement wins big in Toronto

In the last week of March thousands of workers in the janitorial industry made a historic breakthrough by winning a pension plan in their recent round of collective bargaining.

<https://tinyurl.com/y656cbbu>

Amazon under fire for software that recommends firing workers

Amazon uses an automated system that tracks warehouse workers' productivity and can issue termination notices if they miss targets

<https://tinyurl.com/y5dv4o3v>

How Amazon automatically tracks and fires warehouse workers for 'productivity'

<https://tinyurl.com/y2n7dulh>

Iran Arrests Labor Activists Ahead of International Labor Day

Less than four days ahead of the International Labor Day, May 1, several members of the Free Workers Trade Union of Iran (FWTUI) have been detained in Tehran on Friday 26 April, reports say

<https://tinyurl.com/y25cpwjz>

Labor Activists Including Three Women Arrested Before Labor Day

<https://tinyurl.com/y4oa3cyr>