

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

CUPE 391 FAMILY PICNIC

SUNDAY JULY 7TH, 2019 | 11AM-3PM
STANLEY PARK RAILWAY # 2

SUNDAY JULY 7TH

11AM-3PMs

<https://tinyurl.com/y3xb7z7r>

$20M in 2020: Public Library funding

You can make a written, audio or video submission to the Select Standing Committee asking that the government increase funding for public libraries in the next budget

<https://tinyurl.com/y3s9jcoa>

Singing in Solidarity

The Solidarity Notes Labour Choir join their social justice voices to bring you inspirational songs that will have you clapping along.

<https://tinyurl.com/y3ceege>

Are these Port Coquitlam workers a casualty of an industrial-craft beer war?

Unionized PoCo beer delivery workers lose arbitration after company feels craft beer crunch, outsources two-thirds of city deliveries to drive profits

<https://tinyurl.com/y2slypsx>

Following public reaction, Edmonton Public Library drops plan to cut pages' wages

Acknowledging negative feedback Edmonton Public Library chief executive officer Pilar Martinez said the library would maintain current student pay rates.

<https://tinyurl.com/y5e5btav>

Union's inflatable rat protests spur legal battle over right to protest

A series of protests outside local ShopRite stores regarding the use of non-union labor has resulted in a legal dispute between the owner and the Construction & General Building Laborers Local 79 union

<https://tinyurl.com/y69fhhre>

Trump Labor Counsel Hopes Legal Trap Can Kill Scabby the Rat

<https://tinyurl.com/y7ucx99u>

Uber Eats delivery staff in Japan to launch labor union as they dispute their 'contractor' status

Food delivery staff working for Uber said they plan to form a labor union in a bid to improve the disadvantageous treatment for being classified as independent contractors

<https://tinyurl.com/y5qm6bt6>

Uber and Lyft are trying to make an end-run around unionization

Uber and Lyft can't afford higher operational costs

<https://tinyurl.com/y669hksj>