

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

In Memoriam

Connie Faye Sturgess, age 55, passed away surrounded by friends and family on Tuesday, June 18th, 2019 at North Shore Hospice in North Vancouver.

<https://tinyurl.com/y2uzg29c>

CUPE 116 members at UBC ratify collective agreement

<https://tinyurl.com/yvg6d597>

Fort St. John K-12 support workers reach tentative agreement

<https://tinyurl.com/y2euuu69>

CUPE 1260 in Langley reach tentative agreement

<https://tinyurl.com/y32ritbu>

Coquitlam K-12 support workers reach tentative agreement

<https://tinyurl.com/y3s7w8sf>

Hospitality staff protest working conditions at Vancouver's Rosewood Hotel Georgia

Nearly 300 people gathered at the Rosewood Hotel Georgia in downtown Vancouver on Thursday to protest against the hotel's working conditions that employees say "do not meet its five-star standard."

<https://tinyurl.com/y6yoovnc>

Union taking government to court as Kenney plugs ears in labour debate

Alberta's largest union will take the government to court over Bill 9, which passed in the house in the early hours of Thursday

<https://tinyurl.com/y3wvdzrd>

Housekeepers and nannies in Philadelphia may soon win basic legal rights

Thousands of housekeepers and nannies may soon get basic labor protections that most US workers take for granted

<https://tinyurl.com/y46lw3nx>

ITUC Global Rights Index 2019: Democracy in crisis as brutal repression used to silence age of anger

The systematic dismantling of the foundations of workplace democracy and the violent repression of strikes and protests put peace and stability at risk, according to the annual ITUC Global Rights Index

<https://tinyurl.com/yzyw6m9y>