

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

BC Federation of Labour steps up pressure on Western Forest Products, issues “hot edict”

“The announcement of a ‘hot edict’ is a significant but necessary escalation in what is frankly an employer-initiated dispute” said President of the BCFED, Laird Cronk
<https://tinyurl.com/y2uh6f7c>

Rally: July 23 5-6pm Vancouver City Hall

There is also a petition to City Hall

WomenDeserveSafeWork.org

This workplace and hundreds of others like it are examples of why we need higher union density and regulations that actively protect workers

This workplace and hundreds of others like it are examples of why we need higher union density and regulations that actively protect workers

<https://tinyurl.com/yxshlqp4>

Big Business Lawyer Warns Anti-Union Conference that the BC Liberals Are Losing the War on Workers

One of Canada’s top management-side lawyers says big business needs to work harder if they want to stop BC’s ‘pro-labour’ reforms

<https://tinyurl.com/y4wvfgpu>

Workers at Tim Hortons gain better wages, job security by joining the union

Tim Hortons employees in Fort Frances, Ontario have gained better wages, job security, and seniority rights by joining the United Food and Commercial Workers Union (UFCW Canada) Local 102

<https://tinyurl.com/yy8zm6p9>

Unions continue the good fight one year after Janus

Last year, the U.S. Supreme Court dealt a blow to the labor movement in the Janus vs. AFSCME case. However, labor leaders have continued to push back against an organized effort to demolish unions

<https://tinyurl.com/y37op4l5>

Walmart Workers Rebel Against Retailer’s Robot Push in Chile

Walmart Inc. is facing a strike by thousands of workers in South America amid the retail giant’s push to increase automation at its physical stores.

<https://tinyurl.com/y2x3qn9g>