

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

Boycott notice issued for Westminster Savings Credit Union

The boycott calls on the public and members of unions affiliated with the BCFED to withdraw all funds from Westminster Savings except what is minimally required to keep an open account to maintain a voting share
<https://tinyurl.com/y6o3s36j>

VOICE YOUR OPINION
 TAKE OUR SURVEY!

Bargaining Survey

There is still time to fill out the bargaining survey and have your say about what is important to you.
<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/391-2019>

Contract that ended B.C. port lockout wards off robots taking human jobs, union and employers say

After a labour dispute briefly shut down most of B.C.'s port operations this May, a union representing port workers and the authority that runs the port have reached an agreement that robots will not be allowed to take over port workers' jobs without the union getting a say
<https://tinyurl.com/y28d76xl>

Unregistered electrical workers a 'huge problem,' says Ontario trade union

A trade union is sounding the alarm about unregistered workers in the electrical sector. Some say it's a tug of war between safety and saving money.
<https://tinyurl.com/yxlpnqce>

The Amazon Prime Day strike shows how to take on Amazon – and win

In a period where union membership is less than 10% in the United States – by far the lowest in the developed world – this strike by non-union Amazon workers demonstrates that workers want a union and are willing to fight for one
<https://tinyurl.com/y5bop9qj>

Walmart Chile reaches agreement with union workers to end six-day strike

Walmart Chile said its store locations would resume normal operations on Tuesday after it reached an agreement with a union of 17,000 workers who walked off the job last week, ending a six-day strike over wages and automated jobs
<https://tinyurl.com/ykzsqdf>

Backlash grows against unstaffed libraries

Use of keycards and self-service scanners cannot replace librarians, say campaigners
<https://tinyurl.com/y452xyuf>