

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

CAN PUBLIC LIBRARIES MAINTAIN THEIR COMMITMENT TO INTELLECTUAL FREEDOM IN THE FACE OF OUTRAGE OVER UNPOPULAR SPEAKERS?

<https://tinyurl.com/y64dec8w>

Unite Here! Local 40 Hotel Worker's March

Thursday 29 August
5pm – 6pm
Pinnacle Hotel
1133 West Hastings St
<https://www.facebook.com/even ts/2540688122834537/>

In Solidarity

Doug O'Halloran, UFCW 401 president, signs off with dignity and courage
<https://tinyurl.com/yv664a3r>

Mediated bargaining resumes Monday for thousands of unionized teachers across B.C.

The start of the school year won't be disrupted by job action, but what happens in September depends on how well the next two weeks of bargaining goes for thousands of unionized teachers.

<https://tinyurl.com/y3eu65al>

Foodora union voting ends but battle to unionize far from resolved

The company, which operates the food delivery service in seven Canadian cities, has objected to a Canadian Union of Postal Workers (CUPW) application for certification under a section of the Ontario Labour Relations Act

<https://tinyurl.com/yv3mbkxw>

What Uber and the Koch Brothers Have in Common: A Plan to Destroy Public Transit

At the end of the day, the Koch Brothers and Uber are much like Coke and Pepsi. They may have clashing styles, but their product is largely the same: lower corporate taxes, deregulation, lower wages, and private control over public goods like mass transit.

<https://tinyurl.com/yv12824j>

Tell Chicken of the Sea to take action on human rights violations in its supply chain!

For many years, a union of workers at the BMI factory in Lampung, Indonesia has been seeking to end abusive practices which particularly affect the many women who work there.

<https://tinyurl.com/y392g4nw>