

Labour Line

ARTICLES AND NEWS OF NOTE

The Home Line

CUPE Metro Solidarity Statement with Wet'suwet'en Nation

CUPE391 is an affiliate with CUPE Metro and voted in favour of supporting a call on governments, the RCMP, and Coastal GasLink Pipeline to respect the position of the Hereditary Chiefs and seek a peaceful resolution to the current conflict.

<https://tinyurl.com/rmfb3t3>

CUPE calls for dialogue and reconciliation in Wet'suwet'en territory

Police intervention will not resolve the dispute in traditional Wet'suwet'en territory – respectful and honest dialogue is the only path to a resolution. For this reason, CUPE calls on all parties to resume meaningful discussion, as soon as possible.

<https://tinyurl.com/vrbkg6v>

CUPE locals reach tentative agreements

CUPE 4163 Components 1 and 2 reached a tentative agreement with the University of Victoria on February 10

CUPE 394 and CUPE 718, locals representing outside and inside municipal workers in Richmond respectively, have reached tentative agreements with the City

CUPE 4500 members ratify agreement with Coast Mountain

<https://tinyurl.com/towfa8o>

<https://tinyurl.com/vvwwj9>

<https://tinyurl.com/vxdsbo3>

Canada Post workers protest lack of full-time positions

Canada Post workers in St. John's protested Thursday, calling for more permanent workers to be hired, instead of continuing to rely on temporary workers

<https://tinyurl.com/ulza6wp>

The largest federal employee union punches back at President Trump

As Trump continues battering federal employees, their largest union sent him a rousing retort Monday that it might be bloodied but not busted

<https://tinyurl.com/v3mqe59>

Labor Unions Need All the Help They Can Get

The House just passed a bill making it easier for workers to organize. It doesn't go far enough

<https://tinyurl.com/sgdvx7f>

Australia's New Digital Workhouses

Unemployment has become a billion-dollar industry where private firms are turning massive profits for placing precarious workers in jobs

<https://tinyurl.com/rrmfoha>